

Mick Law P.C. Receives Finance Monthly's 2017 Due Diligence Law Firm of the Year Award, Third Year in a Row

Omaha-based Mick Law P.C. recently received Finance Monthly's 2017 Due Diligence Law Firm of the Year Award. Mick Law is a specialty law firm focusing on broker-dealer and registered investment advisor representation, and real estate finance.

Omaha, Nebraska—Mick Law P.C. continues to lead the way in due diligence services for broker-dealers and registered investment advisors throughout the country. For the third year in a row, the firm has been awarded the "Due Diligence Law Firm of the Year" by Finance Monthly. Mick Law P.C.'s reputation as a subject matter expert in securities offering due diligence and underwriting has led it to being highlighted for its strengths in the world of investment management, including features in Forbes Magazine's articles, "Now Anyone Can Become A VC. Thinking of Trying It? Here Are The Risks" and "Want To Invest In A Crowdfunding Deal? 7 Tips For Doing It Right."

When Forbes contacted the firm about its collective opinion on venture capital investment and crowdfunding, President Bryan Mick extended his expertise on the subjects:

"Go in with the assumption that you won't get your money back. If you still like the people and the business and still like the idea of aggregating capital to help someone realize their entrepreneurial dream, great."

Mick Law P.C. is based in Omaha, Nebraska, and maintains its position as a specialty due diligence and underwriting law firm. The firm is comprised of attorneys with business and broker-dealer backgrounds, enabling them, in concert with the firm's contract real estate underwriters, petroleum engineers and asset class research databases, to deliver real assessments of prospective investment performance. The firm's success has been noted by colleagues, peers, and now magazines who have provided them a larger stage from which to disseminate valuable information on non-traded investment due diligence. Mick Law P.C. prides itself in providing the highest level of legal representation, quality customer service, valuable economic analysis and reasoned direction and emphasizes the firm's commitment to being investor-centric.

The firm extends its gratitude for the accolades and awards it has recently received, and hopes to continue to be a source of information in various investment asset classes, including real estate, energy, private equity and hedge funds.

For more information about Mick Law PC, visit the website at: <http://www.micklawpc.com/>

Media Contact Info

Crystal Huynhcao, 402-275-1839, chuynhcao@micklawpc.com

ⁱ <http://www.forbes.com/sites/laurashin/2016/05/16/now-anyone-can-become-a-vc-thinking-of-trying-it-here-are-the-risks/#9eb9c7c116fe>